

Listen Up! is a youth media network that connects young video producers and their allies to resources, support, and projects in order to develop the field and achieve an authentic youth voice in the mass media.

Responsibilities of the National Office

1. Award grants for Listen Up! projects and workshops that assist youth in creating broadcast quality productions
2. Manage and improve a dynamic website that enables educators and producers to exchange resources and showcase their work
3. Curate online media collections, and produce annual reels
4. Organize events and national screening opportunities
5. Provide networking opportunities to assist with distribution of youth media

Responsibilities of Partner Organizations

1. Introduce new producers to listenup.org – encourage and assist youth in creating profiles, submitting media, and posting news & events
2. Program screenings of Listen Up! productions & compilation reels
3. Encourage youth to watch and respond online to media produced across the country
4. Support youth in applying to Listen Up! projects and workshops
5. Establish contacts with local media for distribution of youth-produced media, and supervise youth in the distribution process
6. Monitor youth activity online, maintain current contact and program info, and participate in evaluation surveys

For all questions and concerns regarding membership applications please contact Membership Network Coordinator Matt Griffin <matt@listenup.org>.

Listen Up! is a project of Learning Matters, Inc., a non-profit 501(c)3 that produces The Merrow Report, public television's premier series on youth and learning. Listen Up! is generously supported by the Annenberg Foundation, with additional support from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, the MetLife Foundation, the Open Society Institute and the Surdna Foundation.